Dear Steven,

I absolutely had to sit down to write you a letter expressing our sincere gratitude to you in helping us to become parents not just once, but THREE times. Simply amazing! I know, I know, you are thinking back to the first time we met. Paul and I sat in your office for the first time in the summer of 2002. You enthusiastically told us about the process and how "it works" and we in turn, told you about the "Olivieri Luck" thinking it would us take forever to adopt! Well, we are happily eating those words and now boast of all of our "Olivieri Blessings". Ironically 9 months later we became parents for the first time to our first daughter, Victoria.

We always dreamed of having three children and were excited to start the adoption process again after Victoria turned one year old. As you well know we suffered some disappointment. This is where we want to express how much your compassion meant to us at that time and still today. You were wonderful, caring and sincere. Thank you for encouraging us on as we "picked ourselves up" to begin advertising again.

Little did we know that our dreams of having three children were all in the works. Nine months later we were blessed with the arrival of our second daughter, Sofia. Then a quick three month later our third miracle arrived when Gabriella was born. We went from zero children to three children in 2 ½ years, Amazing!

Steven, we cannot convey enough to you how much we appreciate all of your hard work and your friendship. If we could use only one word to describe you it would be "genuine". It is obvious that you are passionate about your work and helping others.

We will recommend your firm without hesitation to anyone we know who is in the market for a GOOD law firm. Everyone in your law firm that we have encountered has been wonderful. We were grateful to your office for being "on top" of things that needed to get done. We appreciated being kept in the loop on the process from start to finish.

I know that we asked many questions and sent many (many, many) emails. Thank you for NEVER making us feel that it was bothersome.

Renay was especially wonderful to work with and I watched her confidence grow from the very first time we met. Today she is certainly confident, knowledgeable and "on the ball". She was always polite and willing to help. We especially liked how she wasn't afraid to say "I am not sure, but I will talk to Mr. Sarisohn and get back to you." And she always did.

In closing, we want to say THANK YOU a million times. Who knows maybe, just maybe we will visit you in the future for a fourth child. (You just never know.) If you ever have a potential client that is in need of a reference, we would be only happy to talk with them.

Thank you again,

Britt and Paul Olivieri
