

- ▶ Subscribe to e-newsletter
- ▶ Contact this firm

In This Issue

- ▶ Who Can Serve as Executor?
- ▶ Long-Term Care Hybrid Products Give Buyers More Options
- ▶ Book Review: Nasty, Brutish & Long: Adventures in Old Age and the World of Eldercare
- ▶ New Web Site Promotes Senior Volunteer Opportunities
- ▶ SSA Agrees to Stop Suspending Benefits Based on Existence of Arrest Warrant

Welcome to our E-Newsletter

ElderLaw News is a monthly e-newsletter that brings you reports of legal developments and other trends of vital interest to seniors and their advocates. This newsletter is brought to you by Sarisohn Law Partners LLP.

Quick Links

- ▶ Visit Our Website
- ▶ Should You Join the Roth Conversion Parade?
- ▶ Premium May Rise for Medicare Part D
- ▶ Beneficiaries Who Receive Low-Income Subsidy
- ▶ New Web Site Lets Patients Rate Their Doctors
- ▶ How to Cope With a Suspended 401\(k\)
- ▶ IRS Alerts Public to New Identity Theft Scams
- ▶ Caring for Our Parents

Who Can Serve as Executor?

One important reason to have a will is to be able to name your executor (also called a personal representative). An executor is the person responsible for managing the administration of your estate after you die. The first decision is whether to choose a person or an institution, and then to make sure your choice will be allowed to serve.

▶ more...

Long-Term Care Hybrid Products Give Buyers More Options

With many people unwilling to purchase long-term care insurance policies due to the cost, insurers are rolling out new products that combine long-term care insurance with either a life insurance policy or an annuity.

▶ more...

Book Review: Nasty, Brutish & Long: Adventures in Old Age and the World of Eldercare

A psychologist with years of experience treating nursing home residents reveals the bureaucratic and sometimes heartless world behind the cosmetic facades of places with names like "Pleasant Manor," and reflects on how care at the end of life could be made more humane.

▶ more...

New Web Site Promotes Senior Volunteer Opportunities

Seniors who want to remain active and engaged often turn to volunteering. A new government Web site makes it easier for seniors to find volunteering opportunities.

▶ more...

SSA Agrees to Stop Suspending Benefits Based on Existence of Arrest Warrant

A U.S. district court has approved a settlement agreement between the Social Security Administration and a group of individuals who had their benefits automatically withheld because of outstanding arrest warrants against them.

▶ more...

Sarisohn Law Partners LLP

350 Veterans Memorial Highway | Commack, NY | 11725
 (631) 543-7667 | visconti@sarisohnlaw.com
 Sarisohn Law Partners LLP

Disclaimer: The information contained in this newsletter is not intended as legal advice and should not be relied upon to answer any specific questions concerning your own circumstances or for purposes of legal planning. For specific legal advice, please contact our offices.

[UNSUBSCRIBE HYPERLINK] - [UNIQUEID]